

Employee Telecommuting Packet

What's In Here?

You will find several documents in this packet. Some explain the telecommuting policies and give you additional information. Some are agreements that you must sign before you may telecommute.

You need to read the policies and information and discuss them with your supervisor before you sign the agreements.

